

7th June 2018

Dear Parents & Carers,

We are inviting dads/granddads/uncles into school on Friday 15th June from 9.00 – 9.30 a.m. to celebrate Fathers' Day by sharing a story book with the children. Mrs Eastwood is doing a display of books for Fathers' Day in the library if your child would like to choose something from the library this week to listen to on Friday! Arrangements are:

- 8.55 a.m. Wait in the playground outside the classroom door of your youngest child.
- 9.05 a.m. Class teachers will send siblings to the classroom of their youngest brother/sister.
- 9.10 a.m. Dads/granddads/uncles invited into classrooms. Please bring a book (or 3!) to read which will last about 20 minutes.
- We don't expect that every child will have an adult who can visit. Therefore teachers will put the children into small groups. (Please let us know if you are willing to read to anyone other than your own child!)
- We hope the weather will be fine and we can go just outside classrooms to read – if not we will go indoors.
- All groups will be in view of the class teacher at all times so that DBS checks are not required.
- 9.30 a.m. All children back to their normal classrooms for lessons to begin. All dads/granddads/uncles to leave the premises via the school playground.

Please sign the attached slip and return it to the class teacher of your eldest child.

Yours sincerely,

Miss Sarah Vittle
Co-Head
