

Adverbials of Manner

awkwardly

frantically

curiously

obediently

Cut along the dotted lines on the first template to create the front page. Glue the first template over this template. Under each flap, write a sentence containing that homophone and draw a picture. Challenge: There is space on the last folding book for you to add a two of your own adverbials of manner. Remember, they tell us how something is being done.

Adverbials of Manner

carefully

rapidly

unexpectedly

unexpectedly

Cut along the dotted lines on the first template to create the front page. Glue the first template over this template. Under each flap, write a sentence containing that homophone and draw a picture. Challenge: There is space on the last folding book for you to add a two of your own adverbials of manner. Remember, they tell us how something is being done.

Adverbials of Manner

hurriedly

reluctantly

Cut along the dotted lines on the first template to create the front page. Glue the first template over this template. Under each flap, write a sentence containing that homophone and draw a picture. Challenge: There is space on the last folding book for you to add a two of your own adverbials of manner. Remember, they tell us how something is being done.

--	--	--	--